

Clinton Historical Preservation Commission

May 16, 2007

7 pm

Members present: Rogers, Baka, McGaheran, Insel, Wood, Hansen, Crawford-Jones.

Members Absent: Platt, Tiboni, Lione

Review of previous meeting's minutes by secretary Wood. Approval by all.

Treasurer's Update by Crawford-Jones: $6.99 for new minutes book.

Recognition committee: Hallmark store is a possibility. Fox lumber train station still under consideration.

Archival Evaluation Committee Update- None of those members are present, but Craig mentions that Rose said she has found acid-free sleeves for old photos.

47 Leigh St.: We need to create a form that has to be filled out by anyone who wants to donate objects to the house. Dorothea and Carol will draft the form.

Ribbon-cutting ceremony for the house's dedication will be June 20th at 6:30.

Public time is tentatively one day per month and one week-end for people to tour and do research. Three tables from Dina Pender will be purchased.

During Oct. 7th house tour, 47 Leigh will be a stop-off. No access to 2nd floor. Marcia Hansen will be the liason to the Red Mill.

Ordinance Update: Dick Cushing got info, but did not send it back yet.

New Business: Laurie Insel went to a 9-hour-long meeting on April 30th during which the D.O.T. did tours with an economic specialist. The next meeting is May 30th.

Public meeting for Clinton town residents is June 16th during which residents will have a say as to how the town looks and changes.
